Words of Comfort and Promise

Acts 2:38-39

And Peter said to them, "Repent and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of sins,
and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit.
For the promise is for you and for your children
and for all who are far off,
everyone whom the Lord our God calls to himself."

RENEWING OUR FAITH

Confession of Faith

Q. 86, 88, 90 from the Heidelberg Catechism

Q. 86. Since we have been delivered from our misery by grace through Christ without any merit of our own, why then should we do good works?

A. Because Christ, having redeemed us by his blood,
is also restoring us by his Spirit into his image,
so that with our whole lives we may show
that we are thankful to God for his benefits,
so that he may be praised through us,
so that we may be assured of our faith by its fruits,
and so that by our godly living
our neighbors may be won over to Christ.

Q. 88. What is involved in genuine repentance or conversion?

A. Two things: the dying-away of the old self,
and the rising-to-life of the new.

Q. 90. What is the rising-to-life of the new self?

A. Wholehearted joy in God through Christ and a love and delight to live according to the will of God
by doing every kind of good work.

Romans 12:9-13

God saves us not because of what we do. But he also calls us to live a life of obedience. How do we balance those two things?

Write down which of Paul's commands you need the Spirit to help you with most:

Ask a parent or friend which of these verses they see you do best and which one you need to work on most.
